

Stage One: Re-opening Minyanim at Shul: how to pre-register

May 19, 2020

Baruch Ha-shem, now that we may begin to open our shul, starting tomorrow morning, we will have pre-reserved minyanim with tight guidelines for our mispalleim.

This re-opening will begin with minyanim, which will be for men over 13 years only. Due to social distancing protocols, the shul can not accommodate women, children or babies. At this time, shiurim will continue via Zoom; there will be no in shul shiurim and there will be no socializing of any kind.

In order for you to be able to reserve your place at a minyan, the following have to be true: you have not been ill with covid-19 symptoms, you have not travelled out of state for the last 10 days. If possible, take your temperature regularly. If you are ill and can not come to the minyan please contact the gabbai immediately (to know who is coming or not).

You must commit yourself that you will be davening only in Bais Pinchas or in your home (no shul hopping) so that we can keep each other healthy and safe.

Request a reservation to attend an in-shul minyan by sending an email before 7:30pm today to Rav Mailich Horwitz reh@rofehint.org

Specify which minyanim you wish to attend and consider yourself reserved only when you have received a confirmation. Space in minyanim is limited. This week:

If you reserve – due to the allowed number of people in the minyan- you must come on time and leave on time- coming late or leaving early will not secure the proper number for quorum of the minyan.

There will be Gabbaim appointed by the Rebbe for each minyan so people are informed of and obey rules. Listen to the Gabbaim. The Rebbe and Gabbaim want to keep rules in place for your safety and the safety of the community:
